

I want you to severely limit the size of the market that any media company can own and control. I also would like very tight limits drawn on acceptable language and violence with the standards set that reflect the values of the majority of the viewing public. I want high standards set regardless of the energy that will come from those who wish to be able to say or do anything.